

I am a resident in the San Francisco Bay Area, and have been listening and support KLOVE Radio for years. It has been a source of positive and fun music for the family; as well as being informative in the area of news and information around our nation. I think you would be doing a dis-service to the people of the Bay Area and the U.S. if you take away our local KLOVE stations.

Who are these new LPFM, what do they have to offer? Are they another carrier for th Howard Stern Show? Is it going to be another NPR or KQED station, who gives little or no time for Judeo-Christian Ethics? Are they another "relativism" system. We don't need more of the same.

We need the differences that KLOVE brings to the airwaves. Positive music, with encouraging words. Words that in a small way bring freedom to those who are down, there is a Way, there is a Truth, and there is a Life beyond what is here in the United States.
